Last Night of the Carnival Save One

Tonight is the last but one of the great carnival of Bridgeport aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and judging from the unusually large attendances nightly it will be the most successful public entertainment held in Bridge. positic entertainment held in Blage-port in many years. Those who have not been to the carnival, seen its handrome decorations, handsome array of costly prizes and enjoyed the meri-torious special attractions, should do torious special attractions, should do so tonight for tomorrow night will be devoted entirely to the drawings. The Cagles' carnival is well worth going o and those who desire to spent a deasant evening should not let the opportunity pass to enjoy it. The attendance last night was large, in fact there has not been one evening since the carnival opened that the number present was not large enough to fill the big hall.

Centennial C. C. Rally Calls 700

About 700 people attended the cen-tennial rally of the Bridgeport Chris-tian Endeavor Union at the People's Presbyterian church on Laurel avenue last evening. The society of the Immanuel Baptist church won the banner for having the greatest number of members present, last evening, at the rally. Arthur E. Warner, president of the Union, gave a review of the history of the Union, gave a review of the very complete the company of the Union of the U of the order. A letter was received from Francis E. Clark the father of the Christian Endeavor movement, expressing his regret that he was unable to be present. He is on his way to India. The address by the Rev. E. I. Craft, rector of the Christ Episcopal church, was well received. A vote of thanks was extended the People's thanks was extended the People's The library has recently received a Presbyterian church for the use of the building. State President J. H. Mansfield emphasized the necessity of individual effort which he said was as necessary as organization.

FAIRFIELD

At the meeting a few days since of the Fairfield subdivision of the State branch of the Red Cross Society of the United States, Judge J. H. Perry of Southport, presided, and spoke earnestly concerning the work the organization is trying to do, especially along the line of fighting the great white plague. He urged that the local membership of the society be largely increased, and in this connection all the citizens of the town are invited to become members. The annual dues are but $1. Officers were elected for the ensuing year, as follows: Chairman, Judge J. H. Perry; secretary, Mrs. G. R. Puppell. ensuing year, as follows: Chairman, Judge J. H. Perry; secretary, Mrs. G. B. Bunnell of Southport; treasurer, Miss Mary B. Kippen; delegate to the annual meeting at Hartford, Rev. Dr. Frank S. Child. The reports of the various officers of the society were read and approved. The sum of $180 was sent by this subdivision last year for the relief of the Italian earthquake sufferers. During the Christmas season the new stamps will be on sale in various parts of the town. These are for the tuberculosis hospitals.

REFORMATORY SITE WANTED

State Commission Ready to Receive Offers to Locate

The State Reformatory Commission The State Reformatory Commission invites offers of sites on which to locate the proposed institution, which is expected in time to have several hundred inmates.

A tract of not less than 250 acres is desired and offers up to 1,000 acres will be considered; none for less than 250 acres. The larger the better.

A good water supply and ease of access to a large center of population are among the features essential to a sultable site. The Commission will open the vari-ous proposals November 5th, but will use its own judgment as to examining the places offered and will not be bound to visit them all. JOHN P. ELTON, Secretary, Waterbury, Conn.

ASSESSORS' NOTICE

The Assessors will be in session to receive tax lists in the Town House, Fairfield, Tuesday, October 12, 1909, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. and every day thereafter until November 1st inclusive.

Persons neglecting to return their lists to the Assessors within said time will have 10 per cent. added to the Assessors' valuation. No tax lists re-ceived after November 1st. The statutory clause which requires all persons to describe property by boundaries must be complied with.
